

Full-time Student – Refusal of coverage

Les services à l'enfance Grandir ensemble Group insurance – Great-West Life – Policy no. 165729

I refuse to be covered under the group benefit plan offered by my employer even though I meet the eligibility criteria (employee with an indeterminate employment contract working at least 20 hours per week). The reason why I refuse is that I am a full-time student and I am covered under my parents' plan as a dependant. I choose to maintain my dependant status and do not wish to participate in my employer's benefit plan and this applies to all benefits offered (life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment, long term disability, extended health and dental benefits).

I understand that if I want to participate in the plan at a later date, I will have to submit, at my own expense, proof of insurability to the insurer. The insurer could refuse my enrolment to the plan. This proof of insurability will also be required once I do not meet the definition of dependant under my parent's plan and will want to join this plan.

It is also understood that any restrictions that may be added to the group plan could apply to the coverage requested.
